

Secrest Wardle Attorneys Recently Served as Panelists for A.M. Best Webinar, "Pileup in Commercial Auto"

Nathan J. Edmonds
Troy

Mark C. Vanneste
Troy

On Wednesday, April 5, 2017, Secrest Wardle Senior Partner Nathan J. Edmonds and Partner Mark C. Vanneste, both of the Firm's Troy location, served as panelists for A. M. Best Company's webinar, "Pileup in Commercial Auto." If you were unable to view the webinar on the date it was presented, you may now sign up to view a complimentary recording. Register to view the video playback here.

A.M. Best Company provides news, credit ratings and financial data products and services for the insurance industry.

Nathan Edmonds has been in practice for over 20 years, specializing in defense litigation. He is experienced in defending all aspects of motor vehicle litigation, including first party, third party, uninsured, and underinsured motorist litigation. He also works closely with fraud investigators to obtain the best possible results for his clients. Mr. Edmonds has authored several articles for the Firm's Automobile Negligence publication. He most recently authored a No-Fault Newsline article that served as an informative update regarding the recent Michigan House and Senate approval of bills imposing no-fault and liability insurance regulations on ride-sharing services. Mr. Edmonds also recently participated in an A.M. Best podcast discussing legal issues pertaining to Transportation Network Companies and Autonomous Vehicles in Michigan.

Mark Vanneste currently serves as Chair of Secrest Wardle's Motor Vehicle Litigation Practice Group. Mr. Vanneste directs the strategies and undertakings of the group, including mentorship of associate attorneys and overseeing all content written for the Group's newsletter, No Fault Newsline. Mr. Vanneste serves as Michigan Revisor for A.M. Best's Insurance Law Digest. Insurance Law Digest is a resource providing a summary of insurance laws for each state and several Canadian Provinces. Mark Vanneste is responsible for annually reviewing and summarizing insurance laws in Michigan for the publication. Mr. Vanneste has also participated in an A.M. Best podcast, breaking down Catastrophic Auto Accidents and Michigan's No-Fault Law.

Secrest Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance, municipal, and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Troy • 248-851-9500
Grand Rapids • 616-285-0143
Lansing • 517-886-1224
www.secrestwardle.com

